Writ Petition No. 2975 (SS) of 2001
(Old No. 10845/1997)

Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J

Heard Sri Piyush Garg, holding brief of Sri R.K. Raizada, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Anil Joshi, learned counsel for the respondents.

Learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that petitioner, who was working as Daily Wager, has challenged the termination order dated 04.03.1997. Earlier also the services of the petitioner had been terminated by the respondents against which petitioner preferred Claim Petition before Labour Court. The Labour Court passed award in favour of the petitioner. Aggrieved with the award passed by Labour Court, department preferred writ petition before High Court and High Court dismissed the writ petition. Consequently, petitioner was reinstated in service.

Again petitioner' service has been terminated by the respondents. Petitioner may approach Labour Court for redressal of his grievances.

Writ petition is dismissed on the ground of alternative remedy. All the pending applications are rejected. No order as to costs.
